"BUSTER" ELIONSKY TO ENTER ANNUAL AQUATIC CARNIVAL Harry (Buster) Elionsky of New London, the world's greatest trick swimmer, has again been invited to participate in the second annual aquatic carnival of the U.S. Volunteer Life Saving corps at Seaside park, Bridgeport, on Saturday, Aug.

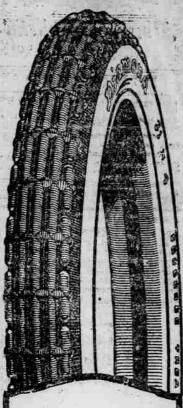

The New London swimmer proved to be a big favorite with the swimming fans who gathered at Bridge port last summer to witness the car-nival. He appeared on the program with such swimmers as Capt. John Hincks, who is now in France where he will compete in the interallied commet. Annette Kellerman; and Captains Fox and Baum of the Lafe Saving Corps. The Yale swimming team also featured at the last carnival and it is more than likely that all of the above except Hincks wil appear at the August carnival.

Buster is disporting himself daily at Ocean Beach and apparently is in finer condition than ever before. He was released from the naval service at Pelham and has been at Palm Beach all during the winter and has rid himself of a lot of excess avoirdupois. He journeyed from Palm Beach to New York city in a "flivver" and he says that the trip jolted
